MEET A WOMAN AT THE HEART OF GO RED: NATIONAL SPOKESWOMAN AND MADISON NATIVE, JENNIFER ENGEL

Research shows that most cardiac events could be prevented if women make small, yet life-saving choices for their hearts. Last February, Go Red For Women held a national casting call looking to highlight the stories of women choosing to beat heart disease. Jennifer Engel, a Madison woman, shared her story. Jennifer's story of choice now inspires women nationwide to take action.

As an important member of the Go Red For Women community, you and your guests are exclusively invited to celebrate Jennifer's choice at Madison's Choose To Live! Premiere Party and be the first to preview a Dateline NBC 30-minute special that will air nationwide this fall.
