Director of Marketing, Medical Development

Job Code: 113217	FLSA Status: Exempt	Mgt. Approval: C. Roth	Date: May 2023
Department: Marketing & Communications		HR Approval: B. Haak	Date: May 2023

JOB SUMMARY

The Director of Marketing, Medical Development is responsible for the direction and leadership of strategic, operational, financial, programmatic and employee related activities for Medical Development marketing. This includes establishing, meeting and continuously monitoring the goals and objectives while maintaining alignment with the strategic goals and objectives for UW Health. The Director works closely with a variety of stakeholders, coordinating the activities across the enterprise.

The Director of Marketing, Medical Development is responsible for developing and implementing marketing strategies to drive philanthropic support for UW Health and the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health through comprehensive campaigns and other activity. The role is high visibility, as the incumbent is responsible for developing, presenting, and gaining approval for strategic recommendations from senior leadership across the medical enterprise and among a national donor community.

The incumbent will have direct responsibility for leading the planning and implementation of the marketing strategy for the Wisconsin Medicine campaign, as well as a roster of other high-impact fund-raising activities. Together with the Development team, the incumbent is responsible for developing measurable marketing strategies to ensure that program goals are met in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Finally, the Director of Marketing, Medical Development will also participate in various philanthropy, campaign, and marketing work groups across the organization. The incumbent works in teams and independently, and therefore must be self-motivated in developing appropriate strategic plans.
