2 Program Overview

The Registered Respiratory Therapist Apprenticeship is a three-year program providing a low cost-pathway for current UW Health employees to pursue a degree in respiratory therapy while earning full-time pay and benefits. The program includes both formal classrooms learning at Madison College and the UW Health Apprenticeship Program Building, as well as on-the-job training at UW Health and other approved clinical settings. Madison College is an accredited program that prepares graduates to pass the National Board of Respiratory Care Respiratory Therapy Examination to become a Registered Respiratory Therapist. Apprentices will have access to a free Madison Metro Bus pass and must have their own plan for transportation to and from classes and clinical sites.

Additionally, they will have access to

- Academic support services at both UW Health and Madison College
- Comprehensive education and career pathway support from Madison College
- A range of other wrap around support services through UW Health (Career Pathways and Social Impact & Belonging)
- Additional funding support for wrap around support services through the Wisconsin Department of South-Central Wisconsin

3 Eligibility Requirements & Program Expectations

Eligibility Requirements

*Any UW Health employee* who meets the following requirements is encouraged to apply:*

- Has earned a high school diploma or equivalent.
- Has passed their 3-month probationary period in current position.

Program Expectations

If accepted, you will be required to:

- Sign an Employee Agreement committing to work for UW Health as a Registered Respiratory Therapist for at least 24 months after program completion or reimburse the full ($10,000.00) or prorated cost of the program.

- Has not been on a performance improvement plan, probation, or written discipline and none of the prior list within the last 12 months
- Have fulfilled any commitments from previous positions or programs within UW Health
- Maintain a 1.0 FTE (40 work hours/week). The number of hours in the department vs. the number of hours in the classroom will vary from semester to semester depending on course load. Apprentices are assigned to work 40 hrs./week in the department during academic breaks).
- Maintain all UWH and Madison College eligibility requirements to participate for the duration of the program (3-Years).
- Attend all classroom and clinical sessions. Be active and engaged in class. UWH policies apply to work hours completed in the academic setting.
- Maintain a passing grade in all courses while enrolled at Madison College that meet program requirements for the Respiratory Therapy Program.
- Complete all homework assignments (approx. 9-12 hours/week or more per class) outside of the classroom on your own time (unpaid).
- Successfully pass the NBRC Respiratory Therapy Examination at the RRT level upon completion of the 3-year program.
- Sign a contract with the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) once the program starts.
- Maintain American Heart Association (AHA) Basic Life Support (BLS) Certification for Healthcare providers (CPR) and any other UW Health or Madison College competencies throughout the program.

**Temporary employees, employees in training, and student employees are not eligible to participate in the program. (Youth Apprenticeship Participants are exempt from student employment status).*
