Arrows indicate pseudomeningoceles from left brachial plexus avulsion

UW HEALTH INVITES YOU TO ATTEND OUR SECOND PERIPHERAL NERVE SYMPOSIUM

Saturday, October 10, 2015
8:15 am–3:30 pm

Symposium Director: Amgad Hanna, MD

Health Sciences Learning Center, Room 1345
750 Highland Ave. • Madison, WI

Register online and find up-to-date agenda information at uwhealth.org/peripheralnervesymposium or call Joyce Bushar at (608) 263-1410 or Niki Virnig at (608) 262-1101
PERIPHERAL NERVE SYMPOSIUM

Saturday October 10, 2015 • Madison, Wisconsin

AGENDA

8:15–8:45 am  Breakfast and registration
8:50–9:00  Introduction
Robert Dempsey, MD, FACS
9:00–9:30  Orthopedic surgery for residual brachial plexopathy
Kenneth Noonan, MD
9:30–10:00  General principles and strategies for peripheral nerve injuries
Gregory Trost, MD
10:00–10:30  Nerve transfers for treatment of nerve injuries
A. Neil Salyapongse, MD
10:30–11:00  Break
11:00–11:30  Nerve grafting for nerve injuries
Amgad Hanna, MD
11:30–12:00  Role of imaging in peripheral nerve trauma
Allison Grayev, MD
12:00–12:30  Management of pain associated with nerve injuries
Sara Christensen Holz, MD
12:30–1:30  Lunch
1:30–2:00  Basics of EMG and NCS* in nerve injuries
Barend Lotz, MD
2:00–2:30  Role of APP in the coordination of care of brachial plexus patients
Shelly Schmoller PA-C
2:30–3:00  Optimizing outcomes after peripheral nerve injuries
Krista Kienitz, OTR, CHT, CLT
3:00–3:30  Research on nerve regeneration
Bermans Iskandar, MD
3:30  Closing remarks and adjourn
Amgad Hanna, MD

* Electromyography and nerve conduction studies
 Advanced Practice Providers (nurse practitioners and physician assistants)