UW Health physicians and surgeons are pleased to provide a wide range of medical services. Specialists from UW Health in Madison regularly travel to see patients locally. This allows people who need specialty care to be seen for diagnosis, regular check-ups and some treatments close to where they live and work. In this way, UW Health physicians supplement and support the care provided by physicians within the local community.

Services

UW Health Beaver Dam Clinic
705 South University Avenue, Suite 200
Beaver Dam, WI 53916
(920) 887-9272
- Allergy*
- Cardiology
- Rheumatology
- Urology
- Vascular Surgery
*(800) 489-6008 for Allergy appointments only

Beaver Dam Community Hospital
707 South University Avenue
Beaver Dam, WI 53916
(920) 887-4105
- Hematology / Oncology

UW Health Columbus Clinic
1515 Park Avenue, Suite 220
Columbus, WI 53925
(920) 623-5226
- Allergy*
- Otolaryngology
*(800) 489-6008 for Allergy appointments only

Hospital Care
Patients who need specialty hospitalization may be admitted to Beaver Dam Community Hospital or UW Hospital and Clinics in Madison.

Insurance
We accept most forms of insurance. If you have questions about your insurance coverage with a UW Health provider, please contact your insurance company. In order to receive specialty care services, patients may also need a referral from a primary care physician. Patients should check with their primary care physicians to ensure that the proper procedures are followed.

RA-41585-14

---

Beaver Dam Community Hospital

UW Health Columbus Clinic

---

Finding Your Way

---

---

---
Christopher Healy, MD
Dr. Healy is board certified in allergy and immunology. He earned his medical degree from Creighton University School of Medicine, Omaha, NE. He completed his internship, residency and fellowship at Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, WI. His special interests include allergic rhinitis, asthma, chronic sinusitis, drug and stinging insect allergy, eczema, food allergies, hives, latex allergies and recurrent infections.

Michael Ritter, MD
Dr. Ritter is board certified in allergy and immunology. He earned his medical degree from New York University School of Medicine, New York, NY. He completed his internship at Ohio State University, Columbus, OH and his residency and fellowship at University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics, Madison, WI.

Healy specializes in arterial angioplasty and stenting, endovascular and open approaches to peripheral arterial disease, aneurysms, carotid disease and venous disorders.

Robert Kria, MD
Dr. Kria is board certified in allergy and immunology and internal medicine. He earned his medical degree from New York University School of Medicine, New York, NY. He completed his internship at Ohio State University, Columbus, OH and his residency and fellowship at University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics, Madison, WI.

Kria specializes in arterial angioplasty and stenting, endovascular and open approaches to peripheral arterial disease, aneurysms, carotid disease and venous disorders.

Charles Acher, MD
Dr. Acher is board certified in vascular surgery. He earned his medical degree from University of Indiana, Indianapolis, IN. He completed his internship and residency at University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics, Madison, WI. He completed his gastroenterology and peripheral vascular fellowship at Gloucestershire Royal Hospital, England and his peripheral vascular fellowship at Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, TX. He has a special interest in cerebral vascular disease, mesenteric and renal vascular disease and repair, minimally invasive vascular surgery, thoracic aortic surgery and thoracoabdominal aortic surgery.

Kyla Bennett, MD
Dr. Bennett is board certified in surgery. She earned her medical degree from Duke University School of Medicine, Durham, NC. She completed her internship, residency and vascular surgery fellowship at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, NC. Her practice includes endovascular and open approaches to peripheral arterial disease, aneurysms, carotid disease and venous disorders.

John Hoch, MD
Dr. Hoch is board certified in surgery and vascular surgery. He earned his medical degree from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, PA. He completed his internship and residency at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital, Philadelphia, PA and his vascular surgery fellowship at University of Missouri, Columbia, MO. He specializes in arterial angioplasty and stenting, endovascular repair of aneurysms and minimally invasive and laser care of vein disease.

Kurt Hoffmayer, MD
Dr. Hoffmayer is board certified in internal medicine, cardiovascular disease and clinical cardiac electrophysiology. He earned his medical degree at Temple University School of Medicine, Philadelphia, PA. He completed his fellowship in cardiology and electrophysiology at the University of California, San Francisco, CA. Dr. Hoffmayer has an interest in both medical and procedural management of atrial fibrillation, atrial flutter, supraventricular tachycardia, and ventricular tachycardia. He is also specially trained in implantation and management of implantable loop recorders, pacemakers, implantable-anticoagulation defibrillators, and cardiac resynchronization therapy devices.

Charles Stone, MD, FACC
Dr. Stone is board certified in internal medicine and cardiovascular diseases. He earned his medical degree from Cornell University Medical College, New York, NY. He completed his internship and residency at the University of Michigan Medical Center, Ann Arbor, MI and his fellowship at University of Rochester Medical Center, Rochester, NY. Dr. Stone is the director of the Cardiovascular Medicine Outreach Program. His clinical activities include supervising and interpreting treadmill and pharmacologic stress tests, interpreting cardiac PET scans, implementing novel imaging protocols and serving as clinical liaison for the Nuclear Cardiology section, which provides a broad base of nuclear imaging protocols and serving as clinical liaison for the Nuclear Cardiology Section, which provides a broad base of nuclear imaging techniques. Dr. Stone is active in studies of myocardial metabolism and perfusion using PET and gamma camera agents. He has special interests in noninvasive imaging of heart disease and regional distribution of specialty care.