

CEO Report UWHC Authority Board

Donna M. Katen-Bahensky
President and CEO

- Margaret M. Van Bree MHA, DrPH, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

- Richard L. Page, MD – Chair of Department of Medicine

"America's Best Hospitals"

	Rank
■ Cancer	38
■ Digestive Disorders	34
■ Ear, Nose and Throat	23
■ Kidney Disorders	31
■ Urology	26

- Magnet Obelisk on Display

- Executive Sponsors for each focus area (Physician Champion and Administrative Leader)
 - Integration and Alignment
 - Geographic Strategy
 - Service Excellence
 - Clinical Priorities
 - Quality Distinction
 - Healthcare’s Best Work & Academic Environment
- Executive sponsors present goals and resource requirements to UW Health CEOs 9.8.09
- Goals are finalized and communications begin

- American Family Children's Hospital ranked second in the nation in U.S. Children's Hospitals use of Electronic Health Records
- Ranking created by KLAS, an independent healthcare research organization, focusing on electronic health records

H1N1 Preparations

- Joint UWMF and UWHC groups planning all aspects of managing H1N1 patients in clinics and inpatient setting
 - Reviewing multiple staffing scenarios; depending on extent of illness, rates of staff absenteeism, etc.
- Seasonal flu immunization program for both staff and patients moved up to September
- Lab and pharmacy preparing for test requirements and availability of antiviral medications
- Coordinating as appropriate with other health care organizations in Madison and county, state and federal agencies

- Presented at 8 of 17 Departments
 - Remaining are scheduled in Nov – Dec
- Agenda includes
 - National and Regional Impact and Response to Economy
 - UWHC Response to Economy
 - Forecast for UWHC in FY 2010
 - Recent Key Activity Indicators
 - UW Health Strategic Plan
 - Recent Awards and Recognitions

- Steve Rough
Director, Pharmacy

- Barbara Kroll, RN

- 16 New Graduates of the School at Work Program
- Completed application process and 32-week program
- Graduates are considering advanced coursework, pursuing degrees and applying for promotions