

Ambulatory - Sub Specialties

- Adult medical (Dermatology, Rheumatology, Pain, Ophthalmology, Endocrine)
- Adult Surgical (General Surgery, Urology, Vasucular, Plastics, ENT)
- Pediatric General Care
- Pediatric Specialty Care (Medical/Surgical)
- Ob/gyn
- Family Practice
- Adult Internal Medicine
- Behavior Health
- Oncology/Hematology
- Digestive Health
- Neurology – Adult and Pediatric
- Heart and Vascular Care
- Orthopedics
- Transplant

For more information: <http://www.uwhealth.org/ourservices/main/10093>

What is Ambulatory Nursing?

Position statement from AAANC

UW Health Ambulatory

Ambulatory care develops relationship with patients and families from birth to end of life offering services in health prevention, health maintenance, disease management, and complex multi-speciality care. Ambulatory nurses are a key resource in our clinics providing direct patient care, between visit support and instruction, care coordination and leadership. Our highest priority is to provide excellent patient care in every clinic.